GEN. L. C. BAKER'S HISTORY OF THE SECRET SERVICE.

AGENTS WANTED in every city, town, county, and State of the Union to canvass for this work.
This history was announced one year ago, but owing to the attempts of the Government to suppress it, its publication was delayed. It will now be issued, unsaltered and unabridged, under the supervision of GEN. BAKER. It contains a full and official expose of the intricate machinations of the secret enemies of the Union.

For startling developments and thrilling adventures this book eclipses the famous experiences of FOUCHE AND VIDOCQ. The marvelous narratives of General Baker are all attested by the highest official authority. It will contain the only official history of the Assassination conspiracy. A full bistory of this great, startling and terrible crime

A MOTHER AND HER TWO CHILDREN DROWNED IN A CISTERN.-Coroner Emmert was called upon yesterday afternoon, to hold an inquest on the bodies of a Mrs. Brane and her two children, James and Ella, aged respectively two and four years, who were all drowned in a cistern. The following are the particulars of the said occurrence: Mrs. Brane, whose husband, a well to do merchant, is now in Memphis on a business visit, resides on the side hill facing the Hamil ton & Dayton Railroad track, near Earnst's Station. Yesterday morning, as is her custom on Sunday, she took her children to visit the residence of her father, a Mr. Dyer, on Mount

A short time after their arrival at Mr. Dyer's Ella, who was totally blind, stumbled through a trap door in the floor of the kitchen, and fell into a large cistern beneath. The mother, on seeing this, and having her little son in her arms, without a moment's thought, jumped through the trap door and into the cistern for the purpose of attempting the rescue of her daughter. In making the leap, it is supposed, the unfortunate woman must have injured herself severely, as she immediately sank to the bottom, holding, as if with a vice, her little son in her arms. When discovered by Mr.

Dyer, the lives of all had fied. The jury, after fully investigating the case. returned a verdict in accordance with the facts as stated above. Mr. Brane, who, as we have already said, is in Memphis, has been telebe kept until his arrival.

A MYSTERIOUS CASE .- Mrs. Mary Jane Smith was discharged on Monday on a writ of habeas corpus from the Hudson County Jail. whither she had been committed by Justice Pope, of Hoboken, for alleged drunkenness on the 18th inst. At the time of her arrest her husband was laboring under a dropsical af-fection, from which he died on the 18th inst. He was engaged in the perfume business in New York, and was worth, it is said, $100,000. Since his death it has transpired that his will was dated on the same day his wife was arrested, and what is rather suspicious, a man named Brett, who procured Mrs. Smith's arrest, is named as one of the executors. Mrs. Smith alleges that she is the victim of a con-Brett for the purpose of removing her during the last hours of her husband to suit the ends of parties with whom he was in concert, When brought to the jail she had on her person about $1,000 worth of diamonds and jewelry, which are now in the possession of the jailer.
